

Curriculum Vitae, Prof. Dr. Christine Falter-Wagner, Dipl.-Psych, PP (VT)

RESEARCH

---

Synchrony in social interactions and temporal aspects of neurocognitive processing; perception and cognition and their neuronal correlates in neurodevelopmental disorders (mainly ASD, ADHD), bio- and behavioural markers for automated diagnostics of Autism-Spectrum-Disorders (ASD).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

2021 – present	Heisenberg-Professor of Clinical Developmental Psychology, Medical Faculty, LMU Munich
2020 – present	Elected board member of the akn (Autismus Kompetenznetzwerk Oberbayern)
2017 – present	Principle Investigator, Neurodevelopmental Disorders and Interaction (NEVIA) Lab, Department of Psychiatry, LMU Munich Head of Outpatient Clinic for Autism Spectrum Disorders, Department of Psychiatry, LMU Munich
2014 – 2016	Research Associate, Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, University Hospital Cologne
2011 – 2013	Assistant Professor and Rosalind Franklin Fellow – Department of Clinical & Developmental Neuropsychology, University of Groningen
2008 – 2011	Postdoctoral Research Fellow – Department of Psychiatry, University of Oxford

QUALIFICATIONS

---

2019	Approbation in Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT), AVT Cologne
2016	Habilitation in Psychology, University of Cologne
2008	PhD in Experimental Psychology, University of Cambridge
2004	Diplom-Psychologie, LMU Munich

AWARDS

---

2021 – 2026	Selected for DFG Heisenberg-Programme
2016 – 2019	Selected twice for a stipend for excellent junior researchers, LMU Munich
2011 – 2013	Selected for the Fast Track Programme for excellent women in science, Robert Bosch Foundation
2009 – 2011	Research Fellowship, German Research Council (DFG)
2009 – 2011	Research Fellowship, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)
2006 – 2009	Selected for the European Platform of Life Sciences, Mind Sciences, and the Humanities, Volkswagen Foundation
2004 – 2007	Nightingale Fellowship, Trinity Hall, Cambridge
2004 – 2007	Fellowship of the Cambridge European Trust
2004 – 2007	PhD Scholarship, German National Academic Foundation (Studienstiftung des Deutschen Volkes)