

Curriculum Vitae, M.Sc. Barbara B. Barton

EMPLOYMENT/RESEARCH-RELATED EXPERIENCE

2016 – present	Scientific research assistant, research group „Metabolism in Psychiatry“ and „Research on Psychotherapy“, Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2015 – 2016	Psychologist at the special unit for patients with Borderline Personality Disorder and Bipolar Disorder, Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich
2015 – 2016	Scientific research assistant, Schön Klinik Roseneck, Prien am Chiemsee
2011 – 2014	Student research assistant, research group „Psychotherapy Research on Eating Disorders and Obsessive-Compulsive Disorders“, Clinic for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich

ACADEMIC TRAINING

2018 – present	PhD student, Division of Clinical Psychology and Psychological Treatment at LMU Munich
2015 – 2020	Post-graduate training in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (IFT, Munich)
2012 – 2015	Master of Science, Clinical Psychology and Cognitive Neuroscience, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich and University of Alberta, Canada
2009 – 2012	Bachelor of Science, Psychology, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich

RESEARCH INTEREST

- Social exclusion/childhood maltreatment and the influence on behavior in social situations in patients with Borderline Personality Disorder and Chronic Depression
- Loneliness in psychiatric disorders
- Psychotherapy Research
- Prediction of the development of side effects (especially weight gain) caused by the treatment with specific antidepressants, antipsychotics and mood stabilizers
- Development of psychotherapeutic prevention strategies: reduction of side effects such as weight gain